

Standup opera

What the gluck?

Quirine Melssen

What the gluck?

Opera for dummies!

Every first Sunday of the month from 5 nov 2017 till 1 apr 2018 at 16.00 hrs.

Comedy Cafe
Amsterdam
IJdok 89
Near Central station
and easy to park car.

Admission fee € 15,-

5 November
3 December (première)
7 January
4 February
4 March
1 April

Standup diva

Quirine Melssen

Piano:

Jorrit van de Ham

Director:

Michael Diederich

www.quirinemelssen.nl
www.comedycafe.nl

Standup diva Quirine Melssen has an apocalyptic approach, combining opera and standup comedy. She interacts with her audience, makes them laugh and moves with her outstanding voice.

Never wanted to go to an opera because it takes three hours before they come to the point, it's expensive and you don't even understand what the hell they are singing about?

Then: welcome to the world of Quirine Melssen and the standup opera What the gluck? Here you can feel the spit on your face, coming from a real diva standing right in front of you. Laughing and drinking is allowed and you don't have to wear a suit.

“Opera isn't dead...it just smells funny”

Classically trained soprano Quirine Melssen brings you an afternoon filled with fast-paced comedy, an unsurpassed High C and - last but not least – some gangster rap.

At the end of the show you have experienced the entire opera “Orfeo ed Euridice” by the composer Christoph Willibald von Gluck; the beautiful music and the story of the guy who was allowed to bring his beloved Euridice back from the dead but was stupid enough to look over his shoulder.

Come along and find out What the gluck? is going on!